FOREWORD

As the first class to complete the six years in the new school, we would like to show you something of the typical day of students at Brockway Area High School in the form of the eighteenth edition of "The Dawn."

Captured between the covers are the studies we have undertaken, along with the fun and friendship we've experienced.

We would like to thank Mr. and Mrs. Doolittle, our advisors, Mr. Swanson, the representative of the American Yearbook Company, and Mr. Hockman, the photographer, and everyone else who has helped us to make our Dawn a success.

We hope that in years to come this book will bring to you fond memories of happy moments.

DEDICATION

Mr. James Hale

We, the class of 1963, are very proud and happy to dedicate our yearbook to a worthy teacher who is an outstanding member of the faculty. He is a friend to all the students as well as to his fellow teachers. He is always willing to lend a helping hand to us through guidance concerning our high school education, advice about our future life or instructions in our daily subjects. His warm and shining smile will always lift a low spirit. It is with thanks and respect that we, the Seniors of 1963, dedicate this eighteenth issue of the Dawn to Mr. James Hale.

A typical day in the classroom.

A rare moment of relaxation.

CHALLENGE OF TOMORROW

We, the class of 1963, dedicate ourselves to the challenge of Tomorrow.

As we travel our separate paths in the unknown realm of the future, may we be ever mindful and aware of this challenge. May we also dedicate ourselves to meet the great and ever present Challenge of Tomorrow.

WE GRAVE AND REVEREND SENIORS

We grave and reverend Seniors,
Who thought the years so slow
We spent in acquisition
Of things we had to know,
Are filled with wild excitement;
At last the goal is won.
We gaze in admiration
Upon the work we've done.
The courses we have taken,
The stiff exams we've passed
Would indicate intelligence;
With wonder we're aghast.
The faculty, they tell us,
Are equally surprised,
For when they found us passing
They scarce believed their eyes.
Perhaps it was their wisdom
That dragged us up to grade,
And so we're saying, "Thank you,"
For good advice and aid.

The Rovers got off to a slow start this season by losing their first nine games.

ACTIVITIES

MARCHING

Mr. Rutch, advisor, Mike Keister, treas., Barb Poole, sec., Bill Truesdale, v. pres., Georgieann Brocious, pres.

BAND

Fall brings not only football games, but also the "trimmings" provided by the band, as it marches proudly down Main Street with uniforms flashing and horns shining in the sun.

During football season the band attends several out-of-town parades in addition to the half-time performances. Then as the year changes from fall to winter, the band becomes a concert band, playing for assemblies and presenting its annual spring concert.

Being a member of the band gives a person a sense of belonging, responsibility, leadership, training, discipline, and most of all, that wonderful feeling one gets when HE helps produce Swedish Rhapsody, Broadcast From Brazil, or any of the pieces the band plays.

Members of the band are from grades 7 through 12 and in order to obtain a chair the challenge system is used, so that only the best and most dedicated musicians may become members.

EPILOGUE

Now, as the 1963 Dawn draws to a close, we hope that it will always remind you of all the fun and friendships we've had at Brockway Area High School.

As we, the Seniors, graduate and go out in the world, we hope that the classes following will carry on the traditions and ideals.

We, the Dawn Staff, would like to take this opportunity to thank everyone who has cooperated and helped produce this edition of the Dawn.

ALMA MATER

In a peaceful quiet valley
Under skies of blue,
Stands our noble Alma Mater,
Glorious to view.
Lift the chorus, speed it onward,
Praise her to the sky,
Hail to thee, our Alma Mater —
Dear old Brockway High.
